Speakers

Reverend Kanyere Eaton, Senior Pastor

Fellowship Covenant Church, Bronx, New York

Pastor Kanyere Eaton is the first woman to serve as Senior Pastor of Fellowship Covenant in the 114 year history of this congregation. Since her arrival in 2010, the congregation has adopted as its mission: the engagement of God's people for worship; the equipping of God's people for service and the empowerment of God's people for leadership. Pastor Eaton has been in active ministry for nearly twenty eight years and has professional backgrounds in social work, philanthropy, and substance abuse recovery and hunger prevention. Between 2000 and 2010 she led The Sister Fund, a private women's foundation in New York City, as its executive director.

Pastor Kanyere Eaton earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Cornell University in 1993; a Master of Science and Social Work degree from Columbia University in 1997 and a Master of Divinity degree from Union Theological Seminary in 1997. She is currently working on a Doctorate in Ministry degree from San Francisco Theological Seminary. Pastor Eaton is married to James Dennis, with whom she shares a love for Christian ministry.

Reverend Danny Martinez

Superintendent of the Central Conference of the ECC

Reverend Danny Martinez is the superintendent for the ministries found in Indiana, Illinois, Michigan (Upper Peninsula), Missouri and Wisconsin. He is the first superintendent in our denomination of Latino descent. He has served in a number of leadership roles, including worship, youth and lead pastor roles. He has also been a church planter and President of M.H.I.P.E. (Latino Association of Covenant churches in the US). Pastor Danny is an accomplished musician and his passion is multicultural worship. Since Danny comes from a multicultural worship background, he really values church participation during sermons.

Reverend Danny Martinez is a graduate of C.H.E.T. (The Center for Theological Studies serving the Evangelical Church). He is also a graduate of Fuller Seminary with a Masters of Divinity, and is completing a Doctorate in Homiletics.
